

WHY Innovalign??

I am different from other independent consultants. I understand your desire to succeed and work in partnership with your organization to ensure your success.

I listen - then act. I understand your goals and objectives - and if they aren't clear I assist you with defining them. Once defined and documented, I work closely with stakeholders throughout the duration of the project to ensure those goals and objectives are met. I understand project initiatives sometimes change throughout the project, and through my approach of working with the client ensure the project stays aligned to new or emerging objectives.

I bring innovative solutions to you and your organization. Through management consulting, I am able to steer you in the right direction if need be - to ensure objectives remain aligned and relationships remain strong.

My company mandate is to not only deliver projects on your behalf, but also to form a solid relationship with your project's sponsors, team members and project benefactors. In short, I care about your success.
